River Styx Bridge.

Fearful Sights Witnessed at the Place

Where Engineer Logan Lost His Life.

Phantom Train Dashes Down Steep Grade.

Frightful Wreck Re-enacted Every Night—Strange Story.

The ill-fated train, on which Engineer Alex. W. Logan lost his life, is said to haunt the bridge over the River Styx near Rittman.

It was at this place that he went to his heroic death last spring. The frightful wreck caused great excitement in this city. There were a large number of Akron people on No. 5 that morning. Local citizens recall the circumstances surrounding the brave sacrifice made by Engineer Logan, whose steady nerve saved the passengers behind him.

That which follows is taken from the Wadsworth Banner of Friday:

Several Rittman people are very much excited at what has occurred at the Styx bridge over the Erie at that place during the past week, and what they term was the appearance of a phantom train.

The first appearance of this awe-inspiring, marvelous apparition, was on Saturday night, and was witnessed by Dr. Faber and a companion. The doctor had been out east to visit a patient and was leisurely driving along about 11 o'clock when his attention was attracted by the noise of a swiftly moving train. He partially halted the situation on the Rhododan border. It appeared that Colonel Plummer, as he is called, was driving a motor car, and that the engine was pulling a number of flat cars, numbered 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

On Oct. 19 reconnoitering parties proceeded along the north bank of the river in a westerly direction suddenly encountered a party of Boers in some dense brush on the right side of the river. The patrol retired and the Boers retired, wounding a trooper. Subsequently Captain Glynn, with a patrol, left Tuli with the object of locating the station.

On Oct. 21 a strong Boer patrol was encountered at Rhodes' Drift in a thick bush. A sharp skirmish was the result. Two of the British were killed and two wounded. The Boers had seven men killed and many wounded. The Boers retired to a strong position on a kopie at Pont's Drift.

Major Bissell, with an ambulance, proceeded to fetch the dead and wounded, and while placing the bodies on a cart, the Boers reopened fire, killing two horses, but in spite of the sharp shooting the bodies were removed in carrying away their comrades.

The latest dispatch from Tuli, dated Oct. 21, says:

"A Boer patrol crossed the river ten miles above Rhodes' Drift, and successfully harrying native women and children. They shot cattle and looted."

During the retreat of General Yule to Ladysmith there were many anxious moments. Monday night when the British marched through Van Londeberg pass, six miles long, to Biggarsberg. The troops got through the dangerous defile with 40 men could have easily been cut off at 8 o'clock on Monday morning.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 28.—According to further advices from Kimberley, the Boers removed their killed and wounded in carts. No reliable estimate of their losses was made. Mr. Rhodes rode out and watched the fight.

The townspeople, including the women, mounted the trenches, watching eagerly for the return of the troops. Mr. Rhodes is cheerful and gives luncheon parties daily, at which luxuries are abundant.

Heroic Action of Eight Boers.

DURBAN, Natal, Oct. 28.—An interesting incident in connection with the Flanellaaght fight is reported here. When the fire of the British guns became too hot eight Boers ran forward out of cover and, standing together, coolly opened fire on the Imperial Light Horse with the evident purpose of drawing the latter's fire while their comrades retired. Seven out of the brave eight were killed.

Indignation at Dr. Hoffman.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 28.—Great indignation was caused by the announcement that Dr. Hoffman, a member of the Cape house of assembly, with a party of assistants, was going to the Transvaal to do ambulance work. It was suspected that he would give information to the enemy.

Synonym Ordered the Retreat.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Daily Telegraph publishes a dispatch from Ladysmith, dated Tuesday, saying in part: "General Symonds ordered his column to march back to Ladysmith and, under his instructions, himself and all the wounded were placed in the hospital at Dundee."

Nullified Free State Proclamation.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 28.—Sir Alfred Milner, governor of Cape Colony, and W.

and no desire for any such intervention at present and that Russia is most likely placed in the same position, adding that Germany is the only power directly concerned in the matter.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Berlin correspondent of The Daily Mail said: "All the arrangements have been completed for Emperor William's visit to the queen. His majesty will arrive in England on Nov. 20 and remain at Windsor castle five days, after which he will go to Sandringham for a two day's visit to the Prince of Wales."

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The magistrate at Vryburg is responsible for a report made to Premier Schreiner, at Cape Town, that 212 Boers were killed at Mafeking.

The government has made public the following telegram from Governor Hutchinson, dated Pietermaritzburg, Oct. 26: "The following telegram has been received from Greytown, from D. Greig, a resident of Dundee, formerly in the telegraph service: 'I left Dundee this morning. General Symonds died on Monday at 5 p. m. and was buried the following morning, close to the English church, by the Rev. W. Daily. There was a firing party and a few medical officers and a few civilians attended the funeral. There were no Boers. Colonel Ekott, Majors Bonitew, Hauness and Naudé, and also O'Connell, Johnson and Ryan are improving. The Boers occupied Dundee Monday afternoon.'"

A special dispatch from Cape Town gave details of the defeat of 300 Boers by the British at Siverton, north of Kimberley, Wednesday, in which the enemy was completely routed with heavy loss. The British lost three men killed and 20 men, including 10 officers, wounded. This is probably the same fight, though a different date is given, as referred to in the Cape Town dispatch of Thursday, when it was said that a report from Kimberley Tuesday announced that Colonel Scott-Turner, with 270 men, had an engagement with the Boers, during which a detachment of 150 men of the Lancashire regiment distinguished itself and the armored trains did good service. The Boers were unable to withstand the splendid charge of the Lancashire, who cleared the hill occupied by the enemy at the point of the bayonet. The Boer losses are described as very heavy. Colonel Scott-Turner's force consisted of the local volunteers who, with the Lancashire, captured the fort of the Burghers after Murray's artillery had driven them out of their entrenchments. Both commanded the Boer force, he was killed. He was a famous hunter.

Before the sortie, Kimberley was agitated in high spirits, as a dispatch from there, dated Oct. 23, says: "Every one was in the best of spirits, and a wedding was celebrated there that day. The dispatch adds: 'Great enthusiasm has been aroused here by the news of the British successes in Natal. Several families of the neighborhood of Kimberley have been noticed in the ranks of the Boers. A letter from Father Korkie said 700 Boers, with 100 wagons, were lagged at Tanga. All the whites have left except the Boers, who sought refuge in the convent. The Boer commandant has promised to protect them.'"

The news from the northern border indicates that the Boers are actively trying to prevent Colonel Plummer from relieving Ladysmith, hence the absence of news since Victoria announced the bombardment of the place created considerable alarm.

Beated dispatches from Tuli Fort partially elucidated the situation on the Rhodesian border. It appeared that Colonel Plummer, as he is called, was driving a motor car, and that the engine was pulling a number of flat cars, numbered 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

M. E. FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Committee Appointed at Cleveland Convention to Raise $200,000 Among Women.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 28.—There was a good attendance at the second day's session of the convention of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church. The reference committee reported that 14 applications had been received for missionary work during the year and four of them sent to foreign fields. A committee was appointed to raise $200,000 among women toward the twentieth century offering to be made by the Methodist churches for missionary work.

The report of the publication committee showed that the different publications of the society were accomplishing much good. A number of missionaries, home on sick leave, were introduced to the convention.

The foreign reports were read, after which Bishop Thoburn delivered a strong address upon the opportunities for missionary work that will soon be open in the Philippine islands.

In the afternoon addresses were made by Miss Louise Rothweiler and Miss Lavin Frey, missionaries to Korea.

Wilson Need Have No Fear of His Enemies.

Put Up Hard Fight Against Officer.

Two Young Men Taken From Opera House.

Mayor Young Deals Out Justice—Police Court.

"Mr. Mayor, please give me protection from them people," pleaded Albert Wilson, colored, in Police court Saturday morning.

"All right, Albert, I'll give you protection all winter," was the Mayor's reply.

Wilson was sentenced to the works for 90 days.

Friday afternoon while Michael J. Selzer and his sister-in-law were walking along North Howard st., Wilson, whom they passed, was singing an obscene song, and then brandishing a razor, declared it his intention to carve Mr. Selzer into pieces.

Officer Goodenberger chanced along. Wilson entered his house on North Howard st., followed by the officer.

He wouldn't surrender, and being a rather large, burly man, fought fiercely with Mr. Goodenberger, but the big officer soon threw him to the floor and promptly put the chains on him, when the patrol wagon was called.

Wilson is a bad man. About six years ago he beat a police officer badly when an attempt was made to arrest him and several officers were called in to assist.

He informed the court Saturday morning that it was necessary to carry a razor for protection against his enemies.

He told Prisonkeeper Washer that he would some day "fix" Officer Goodenberger for placing him under arrest.

Edward Evans and Bert Smith took in the show at the Grand Opera house Friday night; they also took in some valley tan while on the way and then Officer Cummins took them in.

"I was just eating a poke of popcorn and laughing when I was arrested," said Evans to the Court; but it was developed that he had used a "bad word," and Edward got $3 and Smith, $5.

Bert Smith, Edward's chum, said to Officer Cummins, "Well, if you take him, you'll take me, too," whereupon the officer did so.

Bert was sentenced to a fine of $10 and costs for resisting an officer, but the fine is to be suspended as long as Bert remains a good boy.

John Brannon, a young man of 20 years, was on Saturday morning before the Mayor for a second time, charged with intoxication. Despite the fact that John said some one had hit him on the head with a lemon and he followed the throwed into a saloon, the young man was sentenced to 30 days and costs.

Mrs. Martin Landis complained bitterly to Officer Goodenberger that some of her associates on East Exchange st. do not use her right. The officer advised her to see the Policeman on that beat and pour her tale of woe into his ear.

John Kinney for intoxication was sentenced to $2 and costs.

Cases against Wm. Durr and Chas. Allen, accused of petit larceny, dismissed.

Erastus Peck plead not guilty to a charge of intoxication and hearing set for Monday.

TESTS BY THE NAVY.

Marconi's System of Wireless Telegraphy Being Tried on Two United States Warships.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The navy department continued its tests of the Marconi system of wireless telegraphy. The experiments are being made on the USS Albatross and the battleship USS Massachusetts in the North river, off the Battery, in thirty-fourth street. The ships are 400 yards apart and the communication was one of speed and accuracy. The messages, using both the navy and international Morse codes were sent besides numbers and letters selected at random. The largest continuous message was a newspaper article of 300 words.

Of the naval board which is supervising the tests, Lieutenant Commander Newton and Lieutenant Hill watched the work on the flagship and Lieutenant Bligh was on the Massachusetts. When the tests were concluded they held a conference on the New York and compared notes. They will make a final report to the chief of the bureau of equipment of the navy department. It was expected that on Monday the New York and the Massachusetts will cruise off Sandy Hook in order to make a long distance test of the system. They may be away from the anchorage for several days. At times the vessels will be 40 miles from each other, and this will be the crucial demonstration. If successful, it will prove how valuable the system would be during a naval engagement or while a fleet is blockading an enemy's coast. During the long distance tests, the great guns of the warships will be discharged as a further test.

General Rivera Was Dismissed.

HAVANA, Oct. 28.—General Rius Rivera, former civil governor of the province of Havana, whose withdrawal from the governorship was called as a resignation, denied that he resigned. He says that he was dismissed and that he does not know upon what grounds the dismissal was ordered. Senator Domingo Mendez Capote, secretary of state in the advisory cabinet of Governor General Crooke, said it was for the sake of harmony.
